FOREWORD

This is a book of remedies, tried and true, for the heart that longs to remember life at Dillard University. As the mirror on the wall keeps one acquainted with his image, so will the reflection of our memories keep alive within us: a love for the place which has nurtured and activated our innermost abilities and desires for learning; an appreciation for the people who have geared us toward the pathways of efficiency in education; an awareness of the spirit which sustained our faith when the future seemed uncertain; and a longing for those times that we shared preparing for excellence in our quest for knowledge.

We have herein depicted our world as we know it—the sports, the organizations, the classes, the administration, the faculty, and activities. Each richly rewarding page bids us to return to those happy, yet sometimes sad, but always interesting experiences. We hope this book will serve as a reflection of those memorable moments shared by the Dillard Family along the avenue of oaks.

Fair Dillard, the PLACE. We, the PEOPLE. Determination, the SPIRIT. 1963-64, the TIME.

IN DEDICATION TO MRS. JACQUELYN KENNEDY

IN TRIBUTE TO OUR FORMER PRESIDENT,
JOHN F. KENNEDY

The life we cherish is the life that makes us smile gleefully whether we are near or far from the ones we hold dear; this is the life of our former President and his charming wife, and because we admire their life of spiritual, cultural, and human beauty, we stand in humility and awe as we dedicate our LE DIABLE BLEU 1964 to Mrs. Jacquelyn Kennedy and offer it in tribute to our former President, John F. Kennedy.

Sugar and spice and everything nice.

DU

The spirit of Christmas.

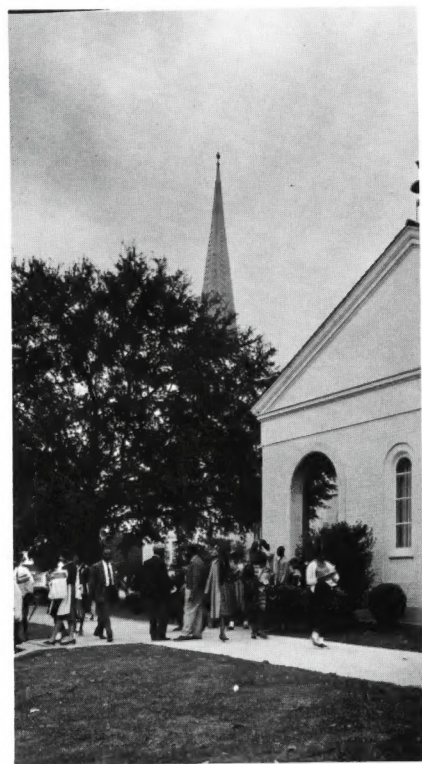

Getting down to the "real nitty gritty."

She's the greatest, isn't she fellows?

Anything you say Dean Phillips.

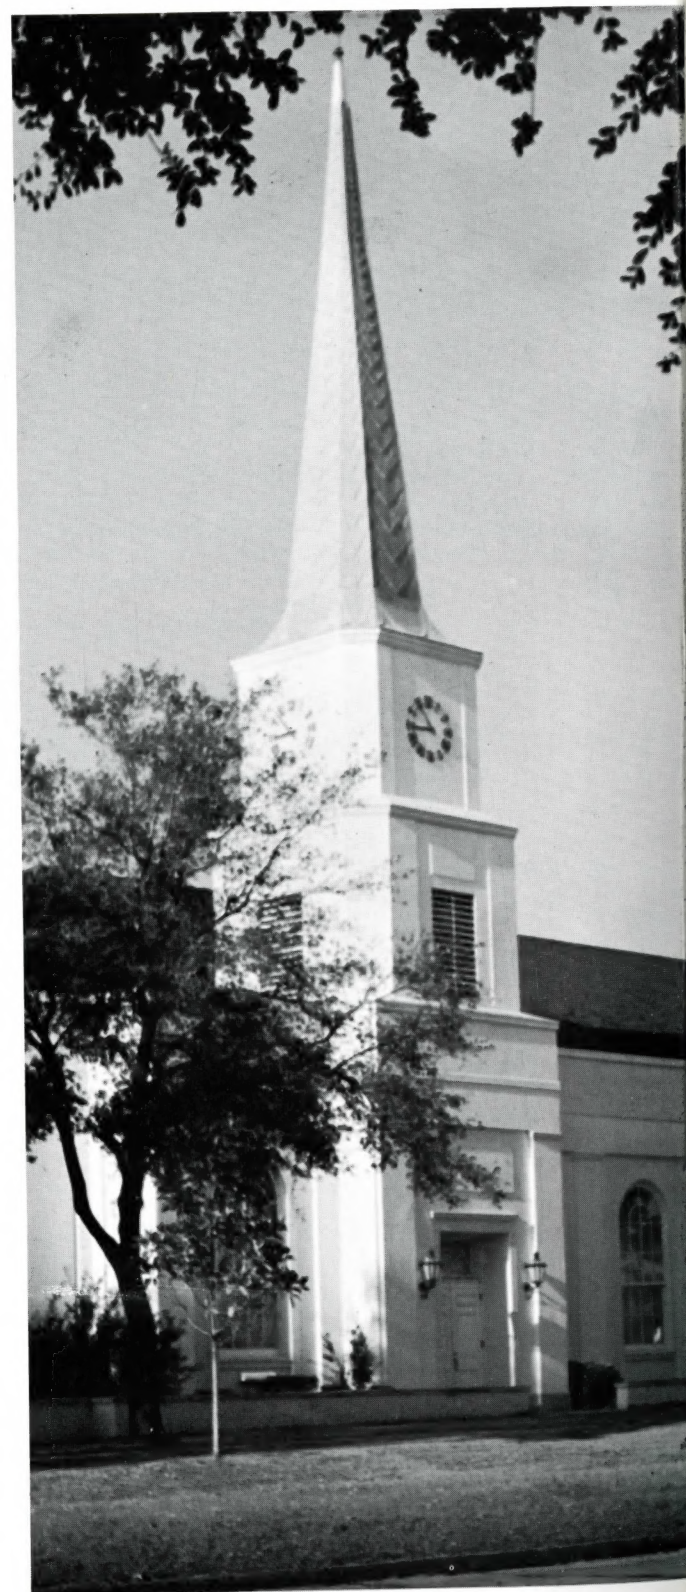

THE PLACE

And that was my L-A-S-T cut.

"You mean he hasn't written for two weeks?"

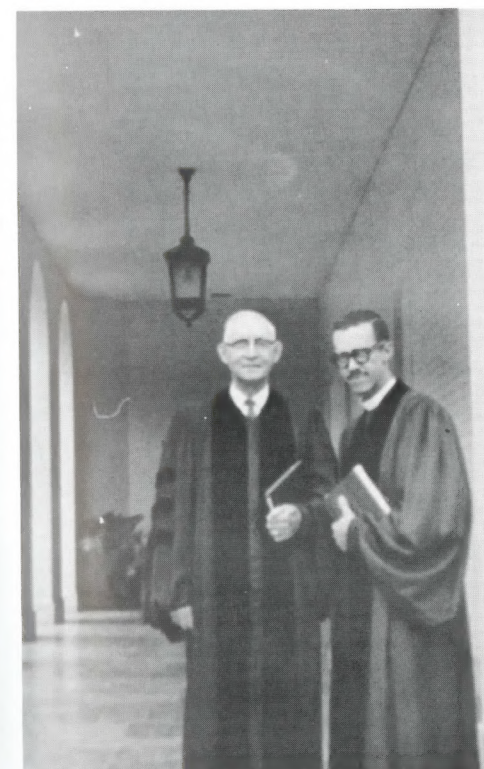

Lawless Memorial Chapel.

High Society??

After the sermon.

Yes, we go to chapel, too.

At last, a decent meal.

Stern Hall, Science Building.

Coss Hall, Drama and Music Building.

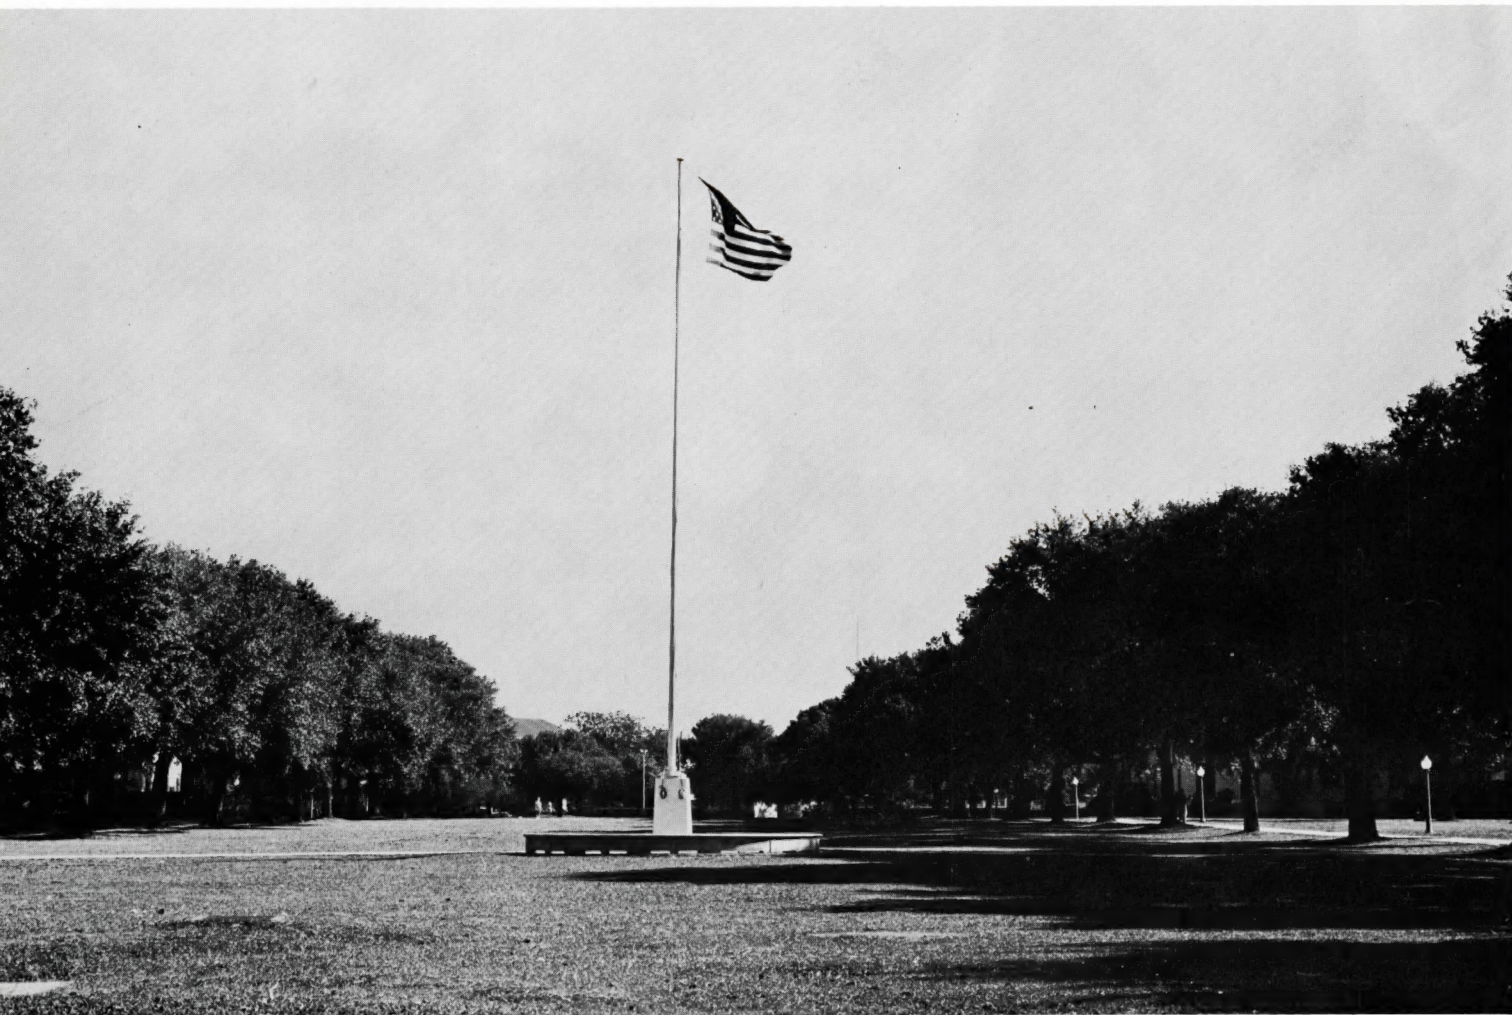

Man, Our freshmen women!

Rosenwald Hall, Administration Building.

Davis Hall, Education Building.

Alas, the Student Union ran the flagpole out of business.

In the beauty of nature we see the wonders of life at Dillard.

Will W. Alexander Library.

Future scientist of this electronic age???

I didn't know we had new meal books.

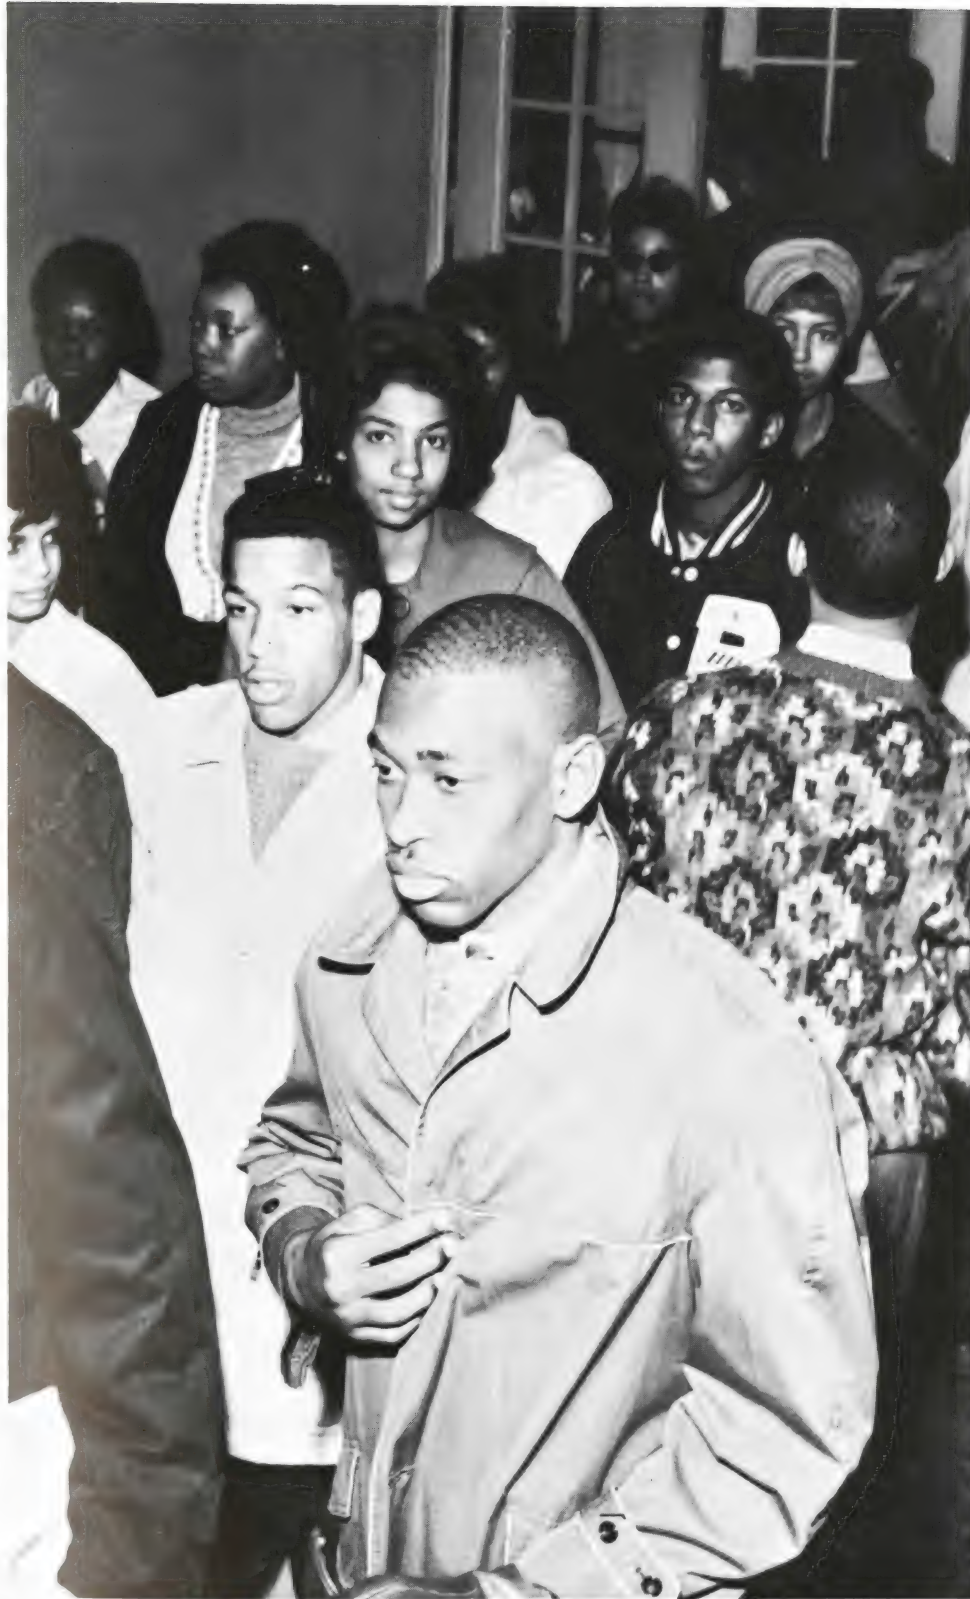

Saturday evening? Naw, Sunday morning.

Camphor Hall—Freshmen and Sophomore men's dormitory.

THE PEOPLE

DR. A. W. DENT
President

A Yearbook such as LE DIABLE BLEU is most important to all Dillard students; but particularly to our graduating seniors, who, in viewing these pages will pause and reflect upon the value of the time and effort that has been spent upon this campus. It is my hope that the deeper meaning of this book, as it recalls the memories of new challenges, will grow with the passing years.

The Executive Council of the Student Union is the student governing body of Dillard University. The Council acts as a clearing house for student opinion on all matters concerning student welfare, provides a means through which students may work in close cooperation with administrative officers and faculty members in all programs, and serves as a practical laboratory for exercising the democratic process.

Seated: Louise Blocker, Marietta Summers, Annie Woodley, Beverly Bacchus, Hilda Coleman. Standing: Terrance Duverney, Frank Williams, James Smith, Henry Lacey, Eugene Harrison, Jerome Wilson, Ophelia Hodges, Arthur Barb, Marion Hills, Barbara Antoine.

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities

Twenty students from Dillard University were selected for inclusion in the 1964 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The criteria used for selection are high scholarship, campus leadership, service to the institution, and promise of future usefulness. Students from approximately 750 colleges and universities are included in the publication.

Alpha Kappa Mu is a National Honor Society. It brings together young men and women of high professional promise on the undergraduate levels. It encourages potential scholars to continue their growth and to share their learning and experience with others, and to accept the responsibilities of leadership.

Alpha Kappa Mu

THE SPIRIT

THE CHOIR

High "C" ???

The Dillard University Choir is composed of students of any classification who meet the high standards of the organization. The choir is heard weekly at Vesper and Chapel services and presents two major concerts during the year. The choir is under the direction of Dr. Frederick D. Hall.

Man! Dig that mellow sax.

The band is now in its third year. The University Band functions with the idea of serving and preparing our students for music education and performance. The band serves on many occasions throughout the school year.

The organization is composed of students with various majors as well as those who are interested in music alone. The Dillard University Band concerns itself with the learning process of each individual who wishes to learn a band instrument. The University Band is under the direction of Mr. Samuel G. Harris.

1963 FOOTBALL TEAM

With a returning squad of predominantly sophomores, Dillard opened its 1963-64 season with the expectations of rebuilding for the '65 campaign. Nevertheless, enthusiasm was high and optimism prevalent as the boys prepared for the birth of the upcoming season.

Depending on such forward stalwarts as Lionel Anthony, Fred Melancon, Herbert Bartley, Lionel Augustine, Samuel Turner, Tommie Roberson, Herman Williams, Douglas Evans, Earl Edwards, Ben Anthony, Clifford Johnson, Daniel Davis, John Lewis, Robert Markham and Thomas Giles to gear the offensive attack, the Blue Devils were set to unleash awesome firepower with George "Rat" Coleman in the cockpit along with Melvin Mixon, Kendall Baker, and William Brown. Fans had no doubts that when the gun was fired Johnnie Shelwood would be on hand to grab the payload and lug it home to score.

Blinding speed and brute force were typical aspects of Dillard's games when the corral opened and such horses as Sidney Madise, Wilbert Rodgers, Willie Spence, Joe Howard, and Vernon Simpson broke loose. John Glapion and Henry Crawford demolished the front wall and plowed for valuable yardage.

Appearing in dual roles on offense and defense our team became battered and worn, but displayed the traditional Dillard spirit and played their hearts

HOMEcoming 1963

This year's homecoming has been dubbed by many as the most gala in the history of the University. Be that as it may, it is certain that there existed on this occasion that air of the festival coupled with a fever-pitched school spirit and all flavored by the nostalgia of the Alumni's reminiscences. And over it all reigned the charming Miss Barbara Antoine and her court with all the dignity and pomp adequate for such an occasion.

Miss Coban and her court.

BASKETBALL

Dillard University's 1963-1964 Basketball team took on a new look with the return of only one experienced player from last season's squad, namely, Jerry Watts. Although an inexperienced team, the Blue Devils provided the usual thrills and excitement as they rambled through their share of victories and defeats. Offensively, fans had something to cheer about as Marlbert Pradd shattered the record for point production in a single season. The team's effort was rewarded by their conquest of the Gulf Coast Athletic Association Championship for the seventh consecutive year. Hats off to our coaching staff and team who has yet to surrender its title since joining the conference.

As usual Dillard's Dogpatchers turned out to make Sadie Hawkins Day a gala event. Although the earth was soggy with rain, the race was swift as Dillard's bachelors fled for their lives. Alas, they all wound up in front of Marryin' Sam sportin' some way out chick ready for matrimony. The day wasn't complete until the girls had dragged their beaus to the dance decked out in onion corsages and burlap sacks. Fun was had by all!

THE LE DIABLE STAFF

MAINTENANCE

What would our campus do without these wonderful men? They are the ones who see that our campus is kept gleaming white and spacious green.

Members of the staff are kept aware of the developments of the 1964 LE DIABLE BLEU.

A MESSAGE FROM THE EDITORS

In early October, LE DIABLE BLEU began to take shape: class pictures were taken; editors selected, a theme chosen, and layouts planned. With these vital elements completed, we, the staff set out to make this year's LE DIABLE BLEU a memorable monument of memories for the Dillard family.

However, we discovered all too soon that in order to even partially fulfill our task, we had to greatly alter our original plans and work under unexpected conditions and restraints. We were constantly faced with problems of finance, versatile yet adequate photography, staff cooperation, and other problems of publication, but as time progressed and with the assistance of our advisor Mr. V. L. Winslow, we finally solved our problems.

Solving these problems wasn't easy, but we realized that we had a job to do; so we cut many classes, spent restless nights, arranged and rearranged our plans, and finally succeeded in the completion of LE DIABLE BLEU 1964. Hence, we feel that in spite of our handicaps, we have made LE DIABLE BLEU 1964 not only a memorable monument of memories, but one of the greatest monuments of our memories reflected through Fair Dillard, the Dillard family, the thirst for wisdom, and the glorious year of 1963-'64. We are most appreciative of the cooperation, assistance, and interest which we received from our advisor, the staff assistants, and the student body as a whole. We hope that you will share our affectionate reminiscences for the Place, the People, the Spirit, and the Time captured in LE DIABLE BLEU 1964.
